SHORT TERM PROPOSALS FOR ELEVATING SRI LANKA

Sri Lanka Administrative Services Association (SASA) launched a series of quickly executable suggestions for the economic and social revival of Sri Lanka. The launching ceremony was held at Mahaweli Centre, Colombo 07 on 18th April 2022 with the participation of the members and other relevant stakeholders.

The soft copy of the suggestions can be directly downloaded from the website www.sasa.lk in all three languages.

Sri Lanka Administrative Service, being the premier public service of the country compiled these short-term suggestions in order to find effective solutions for the prevailing crisis in the motherland. These proposals have been prepared addressing several key areas such as constitutional and legal affairs, economic development, education, agriculture, power and industries.

WORKSHOP ON DEVELOPING A NATIONAL POLICY FRAMEWORK AND STRATEGIC ROAD MAP FOR ELEVATING SRI LANKA

SASA organized a workshop on developing a national policy framework and strategic road map for elevating Sri Lanka. This inauguration ceremony was held in Postal Headquarters on 28th May 2022. Many senior and veteran public officers were present in this occasion and shared their insights on this significant venture of a great national importance. Mr. Priyantha Mayadunne, Secretary to the Ministry of Home Affairs and Public Administration delivered the key note speech. The evening session was conducted as a platform for knowledge sharing and brainstorming on 19 key sectors of development.

BRANCH REORGANIZATION

Sri Lanka Administrative Service Association conducted branch reorganization programmes in different areas of the country. Enhancing the rapport between the main branch and regional branches and recruitment of new members to the association are some main objectives of these programmes.

Branch reorganization Programme - Matara

Branch reorganization Programme - Rathnapura

Branch reorganization programme- Kalutara

Branch reorganization programme- Galle

DISCUSSIONS WITH OTHER UNIONS

SASA conducted a discussion with the other union members about their views on the steps to be taken to mitigate the current economic crisis.

Accordingly, a discussion was held with the Government Medical Officers' Association, in order to identify the collaborative efforts that can be executed in order to overcome the effects of prevailing economic crisis.

Furthermore, a discussion was held with the members of Inter Union Federation regarding the possible interventions as public officers in order to safeguard the normal lifestyle of the citizens.

SILENT PROTEST BY SASA

SASA organized a silent protest in Independence Square, Colombo 07 on 28th April 2022. SASA members serving in different parts of the island took part in this silent protest which urged to stabilize the public lifestyle.

SASA Fund Raiser

With the contribution of our members island-wide, SASA successfully concluded its fund-raising event. SASA extends its heartiest gratitude to all the members who contributed for this worthy course.
